

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

COLONEL TUESDAY AND FRIEND BUSINESS
CHAS. M. MECHAM.

SCRIPTION $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE
containing notices to events etc. Rate of 10 cents per line each insertion. Rate of insertion $10 per month.

Offices 18 and 20 Main Street.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1863

Congressman O'Neill, the oldest Congressman in point of service, died at his home in Philadelphia Saturday.

Frank P. Scarce, the Lexington forger who escaped from jail, was captured at Chattanooga this week.

Master Workman T. V. Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, has resigned and has been succeeded by J. R. Sovoreign.

Mr. J. Marrs has resigned his place as Deputy Collector in the eighth district and will return to his work at Lancaster.

Judge San E. DeLaveaux, of Henry county, one of the prominent men of the State and a pro-southern sympathizer for Governor, died suddenly Tuesday.

A decision in a longer case followed the publication of the tariff bill, which provides for the gradual withdrawal of the bounty one each year for eight years. The sugar trust will be one of the first to go.

The new tariff bill is a revenue reform measure all along the line. It greatly increases the free list and reduces the duties on nearly all articles. The reduction in revenue will amount to about $60,000,000, which will be made up by an income tax on the wealth of the country. Of course there is a howl, long and loud, going up from the Republicans.

Col. P. J. Johnson, Public Printer of Kentucky, editor of the Standard Capital, and president of the Kentucky Free Association and a tip-top all-round hand, has caught on and has had his appetite measured for it. He has been designated by Secretary Carter as a member of the Treasury Department's subcommittee at Chicago, a place that pays a small fortune. He will be examined Dec. 15 and report for duty Jan. 1.

The Christmas number of Scribner's Magazine contains five short stories of unusual beauty in sentiment, especially chosen for their appropriateness to the season.

The author is Robert Grant. Thomas Nelson Page, Harry W. Dyke, Edith Wharton, and Herbert D. Ward. There is in addition a historical sketch of the life of Justice Judson, and a poem by Mrs. Maxwell Scott, which is here printed by arrangement with Mrs. Maxwell Scott, and introduced and edited by Andrew Lang. The poetry of the number represents an excellent list of writers, including Thomas Bell, Abbott, Richard Heywood Stoddard, Edith M. Thomas, Duncan Scott, and Graham R. Tomson.

The Forum, which its readers regard as the foremost of our periodicals, reduces its price, beginning with the December number, from $5, to $3, for the remainder of the year. This is the most noteworthy reduction taken place—those that can take place. Magazines of fiction and adventure, which were reasonably well before the recent reduction in the price of some of them. But no practical reduction of the class of The Forum has ever been made. The Forum is now cheaper by half all great reviews in the world, and it remains the largest of all our periodicals of its kind, and its character is in no way changed.

The largely increased size of its volume since the beginning of its twelfth volume, allows scope for a greater variety than ever in its content. The Forum has been intelligently utilized by its successful editor, Mrs. Kate Upon Clark, in the composition of a Christmas Number of extraordinary brilliancy. These corporations appear to have no scruples in their methods of doing business. They are all out—sugar, flour, and, in almost equal measure, for both young and old, along the lines of Christmas, Thanksgiving, October, Thanksgiving, Martha McCulloch, Williams, Franklin, Coppey, Mary C. Hungford and Mudge, Robinson, while the other contributors include Arthur Beaudrey, George L. Quillier, and George Quillier, and George Quillier. As might be expected the number is particularly strong in many and humorous stories, though ghosts and other mysteries are not neglected.

From the front door of the Louisville Publishing Company, from Hall, Astor Place, New York, is 25 cents a number, or $2.50 a year. A sample copy of a recent issue will be sent for 10 cents.

Life is Misery
To many people who have the talents of their race, life is a curse, a cause of misery, a dreary, dreary, running sores and other manifestations of this curse. They are not only miserably utilized by their own countrymen, but are no other remedy equal to Hood's Saraparilla for scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases.

Shortened Writing.

Thoroughly taught by mail at the very lowest rates. Easy to learn, a pleasant pastime for a child, and big pay stamp for terms and short-hand.

Address Will K. Price, to

The State for 1864

It is nearly 12 months until the next election, but so far as the Republicans are concerned it has been fixed in advance. The ticket has been made up by the CARIB, and the negro as usual is to be given a back seat and assigned to the less lucrative districts. The negroes drawing lines are too tiring on the constitution to suit the colored brother. They can serve their country and party better by living off the Democratic ballot than by running the risk of being made up by the other side. President Claggett was in his seat looking unusually handsome. Col. Buckner Leavel and Wm. Cowan were munching peanuts over by the fire. The ladies and the forties, other members were seated around the table. President Claggett rapped to order and stated that this was the meeting for the regular annual election of officers and announced the election as the business to be transacted. The members in the same committee thanked the Club for having honored him with the office of President and closed his remarks with the recommendation that the President be re-elected for another term. The election was then held and the ticket was chosen. He said, would keep down unnecessary scruples and there would be no more such turbulent scenes as had been witnessed in the past at these meetings. The election was then closed a renewal of the best feelings and mutual distrust in which that amount almost to a compound fracture of the peace. Furthermore, if the highest bidder in the country had the right, we will at once nominate a feeling of friendship rivally that will do much towards making boldness a mark of the most distinguished respectively and most distinguished an anomaly.

For County Clerk, John W. Prosser, whose term as Postmaster for Postage expire just six weeks before the election.

For County Clerk, John W. Prosser, whose term as Postmaster for Postage expire just six weeks before the election.

For County Clerk, John W. Prosser, whose term as Postmaster for Postage expire just six weeks before the election.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For County Attorney, Otto Ander- son, whose record in office is all to make, unlike some of the others of the epoch.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

For Sheriff, Capt. Mc. J. Davis, who was elected in 1850 by the vote of W. C. Davis, of Evansville, and W. S. Folsom, by-the-way, who didn't vote in one of the close wards of Hopkinsville in 1851, when Judge Bucknell's famous decision was rendered.

